

BRYAN HAS THE WORST THUS FAR

Judge Holds The Secret Letter Is Not Part Of The Will, Probated.

IS NOT UNUSUAL

Jurist Finds Nothing Remarkable In The Request Given to William J. Bryan.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 7.—The decision in the Bennett will case, which was handed down by Judge Cleveland of the Probate court, is against William J. Bryan. The judge holds that the secret letter, directing Mrs. Bennett, the widow, to pay Bryan $50,000, was not a part of the will, and the effect of this is to prevent Bryan from obtaining the money mentioned in the letter, unless Judge Cleveland's decision is reversed by a higher court, or unless Bryan should be successful in legal proceedings against Mrs. Bennett in the event that the money should be paid under clause 12 of the will, which reads as follows:

"I give and bequeath to my wife, Grace Imogen Bennett, the sum of $50,000 (fifty thousand dollars) in trust, however, for the purposes set forth in a sealed letter which will be found with this will."

Exonerates Bryan says:
"I find that there was no undue influence by Mr. Bryan over Mr. Bennett, but that the sealed letter was not incorporated in the will. It must also be remembered that the testator had ample opportunity to change his will at any time during the last three years of his life without the knowledge of Mr. Bryan."

"Measured by Mr. Bennett's devotion to Mr. Bryan and to the principles for which both had contended, the bequest of $50,000 to the Bryans, to take effect after the testator's death, does not seem more unusual than the gift of $3,000 offered to Mr. Bryan while they were comparative strangers, and actually paid during Mr. Bennett's life."

Leaves Section Open.
Bryan reached this city and went to the offices of his attorneys, where he read the decision in the Bennett case. Then he said:

"The decision is in my favor on all the moral questions raised by the heirs, and against me on the technical law points only."

"The judge finds that no undue influence was exercised on Mr. Bennett, and that no injustice was done to the relatives, and he expressly disclaims any intention to decide whether or not the twelfth section can hereafter be held operative in establishing a trust."

"I am much better pleased with the decision than I would have been if the court had decided for me on the legal points and against me on the moral questions involved."

Bryan will remain in New Haven or within call of his attorneys until an appeal to the Superior court is perfected.

BRISK BLAZE AT FIFIELD HOME

Department Called Out At Midnight. Four Hundred Dollars Damage.

Damage amounting to four hundred dollars was the result of a fire in the kitchen of James Fifield's house on Washington street shortly after twelve o'clock last evening. The domestic was the first to discover the blaze and she gave the alarm. Members of the family were soon aroused and a call was sent in from box 16. The department was soon on the scene, but the fire had gotten a good start and it was an hour before the trouble was over. The destruction was confined to the rear part of the structure and no damage was done to the front rooms. The origin of the conflagration is unknown.

SELLS PROPERTY IN FRONT OF THE COURTHOUSE TODAY

Sheriff Appleby Disposes of Several Pieces of Valuable Property Today.

Sheriff Appleby this morning offered for sale in front of the courthouse the w 1/2 of the sec 14, section 15, town 2, north of range 11 east, comprising eighty acres in all, in the town of Plymouth. The property was offered for sale in accordance with a judgment rendered in circuit court on Sept. 2, 1902, in the proceedings of Miss Kathline vs. Henrietta Wisch, Charles W. Wisch et al. William Schroeder of Haverhill was bidding under some mistake as to the terms of the sale and wanted bonds for the payment in lieu of the cash. This, of course, was contrary to law and it was considered likely that the property would have to be offered for sale again.

RANCHMAN'S DAUGHTER ELOPES WITH CHINAMAN

While Father Is Searching San Francisco for Her She Comes East With Almond-Eyed Lover.

(Special By Scripps-McLae.)
Chicago, Ill., Nov. 7.—While her uncle was searching every nook and corner of San Francisco for her, Miss Bobb Clark Hoyt of Bozeman, Mont., outwitted her relatives by coming east instead of going west when she put her plans for an elopement into effect. The plans for the secret marriage were made a year ago, and she is now the wife of John Wing Lee, a naturalized Chinaman, who was formerly an employee of her uncle, Benjamin D. Hoyt, owner of the "Bar H" ranch. They were married by Justice Cochran and are now on their way to Niagara Falls for a honeymoon trip. The young woman is also related to the family of Senator Clark of Montana.

The father of the bridegroom was at one time cook in the Hoyt household, and it was while the son was on a visit to his father from Leland Sanford university, where he was a student, that he met Miss Hoyt. When Lee was graduated he returned to Bozeman and was made private secretary to the ranch owner.

Soon an attachment sprang up between the Chinaman and the niece, and when the ranch owner learned of it there was a scene, and Lee came to Chicago. An elopement was soon afterward planned, but owing to the sickness of Miss Hoyt, it was abandoned. Lee remained in the East until about a month ago, when he returned to Bozeman. A meeting with Miss Hoyt resulted in an understanding being reached, and the couple came East.

SALES OF POSTS ARE INCREASING

Many Rock County Farmers Using The Cement Supports On Their Farms.

Rock county farmers are much pleased with the cement posts manufactured by the local concern. The daily sales are increasing continually and many farms in this and the surrounding towns are now equipped with the handsome wire supports. At the beginning the sales were rather slow but as the farmers began to see the value of the invention, from the experience of others, they were quick to try it for themselves as soon as they had need for more supports to replace the rotting wooden ones. Seventy-five cars of cement posts have been sold by the company since the last of July.

NON-UNION MESSENGER SHOT WHILE DOING REGULAR DUTY

Man Who Took a Union Man's Job Is Killed and His Assassin Makes Good Their Escape.
(Special By Scripps-McLae.)
Texarkana, Tex., Nov. 7.—Express messenger Thomas Copeland, who had taken a union man's place on the Pacific express, was assassinated last night in his car and the assassins escaped before they were apprehended.

RECEIVER APPOINTED
(Special By Scripps-McLae.)
Reading, Pa., Nov. 7.—A receiver was this morning appointed for the Carpenter Steel company.

Woman Philanthropist Dies.
Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 7.—Mrs. Mary E. Schenley, noted philanthropist and donor of Schenley park in Pittsburg, is dead in London.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRES

The British cruisers Medusa and Medea sailed from Gibraltar for Portsmouth in a race at full speed to test the boilers and coal consumption.

John C. Kane, head of the American banking house bearing his name and for years agent of the North German Lloyd Steamship line, is dead in Paris.

Baron Sternburg, German ambassador to the United States, will sail for New York Nov. 17. In Berlin he said he had not had an operation for aural trouble.

Mrs. Mary E. Schenley, the benefactress of Pittsburg, who died in London, left nothing to charity, it is thought because of the large donations made during life.

King Victor Emmanuel entertained United States Ambassador Meyer at luncheon at the royal shooting lodge at San Rosore, Italy, and the two then participated in a hunting party. The real name of George Yangle, the Armenian murderer and suicide, is said to be Karan and he formerly resided at Providence, R. I. In Providence, however, he is not known.

The Deutsche bank's intended listing of Baltimore and Ohio stock in the Berlin bourse has been countermanded, owing to premature publication of its intention, which caused speculators to buy ahead with the design of selling as soon as the stock was listed.

It was officially announced in London that Premier Malheur, with King Edward's approval, has appointed a committee to advise concerning the creation of a board for the administration of the war office and the charges involved. The committee are Viscount Escher, Admiral St. John, A. Fisher and Colonel Sir George S. Clarke.

CONFERENCE ON AT WASHINGTON

MANY PROMINENT SENATORS MET ROOSEVELT TO DAY.

SENATOR SPOONER PRESENT.

Congratulate Him On Recognition Of Republic Of Panama Yesterday.

(Special By Scripps-McLae.)
Washington, Nov. 6.—There was an important conference at the White House this morning between prominent United States senators and President Roosevelt. Senators Spooner, Aldrich, Hale, Cullom and Platt were present; the principal topic discussed was Cuban reciprocity and the present Panama situation. All the senators warmly congratulated President Roosevelt on the step he took yesterday in recognizing the new republic. Advice from Colonel this morning announced that the United States cruiser Atlanta has arrived and that everything is quiet throughout the isthmus.

Word from Berlin.
Berlin, Nov. 7.—The German foreign office today authorized the statement Germany approved of the action of the United States in recognizing the independence of Panama and that the great powers of Europe would have acted similarly in the same conditions.

ALLEGED THAT SENATOR SELLS APPOINTMENTS

Rumors Regarding Mr. Dietrich of Nebraska Are to Be Investigated by the Grand Jury.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 7.—United States Senator Dietrich of Nebraska is to have his alleged trafficking in post-office appointments examined into by the federal grand jury, which convenes in Omaha.

For the last three months rumors have been in circulation that Dietrich had sold the appointment to the Hastings postoffice as well as to others, and it is said that the matter came before the last federal grand jury, but was laid over until the next meeting.

The specific allegation that will be thoroughly aired before the grand jury is that Dietrich put the postmaster in the city of Hastings up at auction and disposed of it to the highest bidder, Jacob Fisher, for $1,500.

Some time ago a Lincoln daily published the story that Dietrich had received money for his appointment, and a Hastings report says a United States deputy is in that city serving subpoenas on witnesses to appear in Omaha before the federal grand jury. The report of the investigation has caused a political sensation in all parts of the state.

At Hastings Senator Dietrich refused to be interviewed on the subject.

MAGISTRATE KILLS A FARMER

Kentucky Justice Shoots Man in Quarrel Over a Warrant.

Bowling Green, Ky., Nov. 7.—Magistrate Elijah Upton shot and killed Tom Stewart, a well-to-do farmer, at Richmondville. The murder was the result of the issuing of a warrant by Upton for Stewart's arrest upon the application of the latter's son following a quarrel over politics. The boy's father heard of the son's intention and he issued a warrant that he would kill him on sight. Stewart and Upton met on the street and after some words the latter shot and killed Stewart.

The Holway timber mill at La Crosse was totally destroyed by fire yesterday morning. Loss $55,000.

GREAT JOY IN NEW REPUBLIC

Express Great Enthusiasm Over Their Recognition by Uncle Sam.

(Special by Scripps-McLae.)
Washington, Nov. 7.—The United States council at Colon telegraphed this morning that Menendez had been appointed and inaugurated governor of Panama. Messages from the consul at Panama announce that everything is quiet there and that the people are still rejoicing over their recognition by the United States. The minister at Bogota announces that there is great excitement at the Colombian capital over the announcement that independence had been declared and accepted by the United States.

Instructions to Ministers.
The message sent to Minister Beaupre at Bogota is more significant. Colombia's sovereignty on the isthmus will be again recognized when its rule has been re-established by peaceful methods but not by war. In his message to Minister Beaupre, Secretary Hay has paraphrased President McKinley's message to congress in regard to Cuba: "In the name of humanity, in the name of civilization, in behalf of endangered American interests, which give us the right and the duty to speak out and to act, the war in Cuba must stop."

Secretary Hay instructed Minister Beaupre to say to Colombia that the president "holds that he is bound, not merely by treaty obligations, but by the interests of civilization, to see that the peaceable traffic of the world across the isthmus of Panama shall no longer be disturbed by a constant succession of unnecessary and wasteful civil wars."

Colombia will not be allowed to make war to regain possession of the isthmus. If it can secure possession by peaceful means it may do so, but the United States warships will not permit an attack on the new government.

Monroe Doctrine Is Basis.
The administration's course is regarded by some as an almost radical step in the American policy toward the small republics of the South, but by those who have advised the President it is considered a necessary one in asserting the Monroe Doctrine as defended by Mr. Blaine in his circular letter inviting the South American republics to attend the Pan-American congress.

"The position of the United States as the leading power of the new world," said the letter, "might well give to its government a claim to authoritative utterance for the purpose of quieting discord among its neighbors, with all of whom the most friendly relations exist."

While it is true that the recognition of the provisional government is only conditioned on its ability to maintain itself, little doubt is felt here that the new republic will be of a permanent character.

The new government will continue for about four months, when the isthmian congress, yet to be formed, will be called upon to form a government.

It will then be in order for Ministers to be appointed between the United States and Panama, which will constitute full political recognition of the latter state. A treaty will be made with it, and under that treaty a new concession for the canal will be secured.

May Follow Cuban Precedent.
It is admitted that there may be necessarily some limitations on the independence of the new republic, because of its intimate relations with this government, the same as were fixed in the Cuban constitution by the Platt amendment. The necessity will be greater because of the necessity for the United States to have control of the canal and the entrances to it, including the cities of Colon and Panama.

TRAIN ROLLS OFF BIG EMBANKMENT

WENT DOWN FIFTEEN FOOT BANK THIS MORNING.

TWENTY PASSENGERS HURT.

Entire Train Rolled Over and Landed in A Ditch—No One Killed.

(Special By Scripps-McLae.)
Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 6.—The west-bound Clover Leaf passenger train, running between Toledo and St. Louis, ran into an open switch a mile from the city this morning while running at twenty miles an hour. The entire train was turned over and rolled down a fifteen-foot embankment and then slid a train length on the roofs of the coaches. There were twenty passengers on board the train and all were badly bruised but no one was killed. Conductor Huntington of Toledo was the worst injured, suffering from fractured ribs and internal injuries. Among other injured are Ida Maxwell, Michigan; Mrs. Chas. Beuce, Forest, Ind.; Irene Halling, Pharaohville; Mrs. Shultz, Waynetown, Ind.; Mrs. Oakley Quick, Mrs. J. D. Quick, Mrs. Virginia Lung, Kokomo Johnson, Forest; W. C. Smith, La Fayette; H. C. Swaysee, Forest; U. C. Carter, Frankfort; G. H. Williams, St. Louis; W. L. Buesing, St. Louis.

SAILORS ARE RESCUED FROM SINKING BARGE

Searchlight Aids Life Crew to Save Two Men Before the Vessel Goes Down.

(Special By Scripps-McLae.)
Ludington, Mich., Nov. 7.—Guided by the beam of the searchlight on the big car ferry steamer F. & P. M. No. 18, the Ludington life saving crew at midnight Thursday night rescued two sailors from the water logged barge A. T. Bliss in midlake just a few minutes before the vessel went to the bottom of Lake Michigan. The life savers were towed to the rescue by the car ferry, after the Bliss had been abandoned in a furious gale by the tug Sydney Smith, which had it in tow.

The crew of the Bliss, Thomas Tolfeisen and George Coffin, had given up hope when the searchlight of the car ferry picked up their sinking craft. The storm which wrecked the Bliss was the worst of the season, and they would have perished but for the aid given by the car ferry.

The Bliss was bound from Sturgeon Bay with a load of stone for Ludington. Half way across the lake the fierce northern struck the boat, which after two hours broke away from the tug Sydney Smith. The crew of the Bliss dared not take their craft alongside the plunging barge for fear of being sunk and the barge was leaking badly. Telling the men on the sinking craft of their intention, they steamed toward Ludington for aid.

ATTACKS THE UNITED STATES

Spanish Senator's Fiery Speech Is Stripped by Premier.

Madrid, Nov. 7.—In the senate Sen. Canalejas, who had been expelled from the government for his recommendation to Spanish manufacturers that they participate in the St. Louis exposition and on the proposal to send the cruiser Rio de la Plata to represent Spain. The senator used the most violent language against the United States, causing Premier Villaverde to protest against the terms employed, which the premier said would not be justified even in time of war.

The Hamburg-American line steamer Fuerst Bismarck, which sailed from Southampton for New York, took $950,000 in gold.

CHARLOTTE CITIZENS USE TAR AND FEATHERS

Mob Revengees Itself on Clerk Alleged to Be Responsible for Suicide of a Girl.

Charlotte, Mich., Nov. 7.—A mob surrounded the Williams house, demanded J. Ward Copeland, the day clerk of the house, and tarred and feathered him for his share in the fate of Mabel Sturdevant, the Gillett, Pa. girl who hanged herself in her room at the Phoenix house Sunday night, Nov. 1.

Prosecutor's statement added to the bitter feeling against Copeland and a petition was circulated and signed by hundreds volunteering to join a party to tar and feather him.

The mob gathered about a block away and when it reached the hotel Copeland ran upstairs to his room. The crowd followed, broke in the door and found Copeland under the bed.

He was dragged forth and taken to the middle of Main street, in front of the hotel, where his clothing was torn to shreds, each person in the mob wearing small bits of his apparel as a lapel decoration.

After applying tar and feathers in liberal quantities the ringleader, a well known citizen, made a speech, in which he told Copeland he must leave the town within twenty-four hours, and failing, he would receive a second count.

FARMER LOSES VALUABLE MARE

Animal Dies of Colic Soon After Purchase From Clinton Man.

Cyrus Schenk, Rock county farmer purchased a mare from a dealer in Clinton and brought the animal home with him. He left her in the pasture, but returning after an hour or so found the animal dead. The horse was a blooded animal and Schenk believed he had secured a valuable prize as he drove home, ward with his newly purchased equine. One hundred and fifty dollars in cold cash had been paid for the mare and she was considered a really good one. The pasture where the animal was left was provided with a watering trough and it was noticed that the mare drank heavily after being placed in the field. It is believed that death was due to colic caused by the green feed and water.

DO NOT BELIEVE COSTELLO IS TELLING THE TRUTH

He Now Claims He Spent His Part of the Money Given for Returning the Boy.

(Special By Scripps-McLae.)
St. Joseph, Mo., Nov. 7.—Thomas Costello, who told the police he assisted in the Cudahy kidnapping case, is being held for future developments. He tells a circumstantial story of the occurrence and claims he spent part of his share of the reward. Young Cudahy's father does not believe the story.

POPE WOULD SEPARATE CHURCHES OF PROPAGANDA

Plans for Great Divisions of Roman Church Are Said to Be Contemplated.

(Special By Scripps-McLae.)
Rome, Nov. 7.—It is learned that the pope is studying the project of withdrawing America and Australia from the jurisdiction of the congregation of the Propaganda. The project provides for a kind of autonomy for the countries under the responsibilities of their cardinals and a dependence upon Rome merely as a question of dogma.

STATE NOTES

George Hubbard, postmaster of Crivitz, Marinette county, son-in-law of H. Zech, and former town treasurer, is missing and there is a shortage of $350.

Col. "Gabe" Bouck of Oshkosh, who is seriously ill with rheumatism and general debility, is reported better.

Henry M. Cochrane of Portage, a well-known traveling man, committed suicide Thursday night in a Waterloo, Indian Territory, hotel.

Green Acre farm at Kenosha, the famous summer home of Grace Snell Coffin, daughter of Amos J. Snell, the murdered Chicago millionaire has been sold to J. C. Eager, of Chicago, for $20,000.

Hydrophobia has broken out among the cattle of N. Nelson, a farmer near Neenah. Three of the cows died and fifty dogs which ate of the carcasses are believed to be infected.

August Kesselmann was instantly killed yesterday while blasting stumps on the farm of M. Hausmann, four miles east of West Bend. The body was thrown forty feet by the terrific force of the dynamite and the report was heard ten miles away.

Inquiries at Oshkosh fail to reveal any trace of William Anderson, the reported former Oshkosh restaurant keeper whose daughter is said to have married Robert Golet of New York "swindler."

ALL READY FOR EXTRA SESSION

The Congressmen Look For Little to Be Done At The Present Time.

MANY WILL SPEAK

Anticipate Lengthy Arguments By The Leaders But Little Legislation To Be Accomplished.

(Special By Scripps-McLae.)

Washington, Nov. 7.—Preparations for the opening of the special session of congress Monday are completed. It is the consensus of opinion among Republicans as well as Democratic congressmen that the work of the special session will not be important. On the eve of a presidential election the majority leaders in both houses and senate will frown on any legislation that will raise issues for the next campaign. Most of the time will be devoted to speechmaking, in which the Democrats, with a tariff revision battle cry, will be the principal participants.

Representative Boutwell of Chicago is being strongly urged for appointment to fill one of the vacancies on the important ways and means committee. The state had representation on the committee last session, when Senator Hopkins, as in the house, and the speaker, coming from Illinois, will be personally inclined to recognize the claim of the state.

Clash Over Jurisdiction.

A clash between the house and senate over Cuban reciprocity legislation seems almost certain to develop. It is not caused by opposition to the legislation, but as to what form it shall take. A meeting of the senate finance committee, at which all the members were present, was held Friday without producing any solution. The trouble is one of constitutional prerogative, the senate leaders contending that in reciprocity matters they have complete jurisdiction, while the house insists that the concurrence of the house is necessary to put in force the reduction of duties provided in reciprocity treaties.

May Open Tariff Discussion.
The importance of the contest arises out of the fact that a precedent will be established for guidance of congress in the future. The house leaders insist that a bill originating in that body must be passed, while the senate leaders take the position that a joint resolution, merely authorizing the reduction in duties provided in the treaty, without stipulating each item, will be sufficient.

Conspiracies to again wreck the administration's plan for Cuba reciprocity are said to be on foot and the house "insurgents" and a few Democrats predict that no agreement can be expected either at the extra or during the regular session. The "insurgents" expect to effect a combination with the Democrats by which a bill to pass the house in such a form as to open up in the senate, when it reaches that body, a tariff discussion that will be endless.

Financial Legislation.
The senate finance committee informally discussed the outlook for financial legislation this session, but without reaching an agreement. Senator Aldrich, chairman of the committee, will urge the passage of a bill similar to the financial measure which bore his name at the last session, being particularly desirous of legislation specifically providing for the deposit of government funds with national banks upon other security than government bonds.

HYPNOTIST ABDUCTS RICH MAN'S DAUGHTER

Seventeen-Year-Old Miss Reaches Her Uncle's Home in Omaha Still Haunted by Eyes.

Omaha, Nov. 7.—Escaping from abductors when half-way across the continent, Clara Josephine Coffin, the 17-year-old daughter of Edward W. Coffin, a prominent official of the Standard Oil company, is at the home of her cousin, Postmaster Joseph Crow of this city, suffering from nervous shock and crying out for protection against a woman who hypnotized her and made her leave her home in East Orange, N. J. "Oh, those terrible black, piercing eyes." That is Miss Coffin's best description of the woman who held her for days in her power.

From the time Miss Coffin was misled at her home in East Orange last Tuesday evening till a messenger boy brought a telegram to the dwelling of Postmaster Joseph Crow of this city, a cousin, Thursday night, no news was obtained of her. The messenger deplored: "Meet me at the Northwestern depot at 11 o'clock."

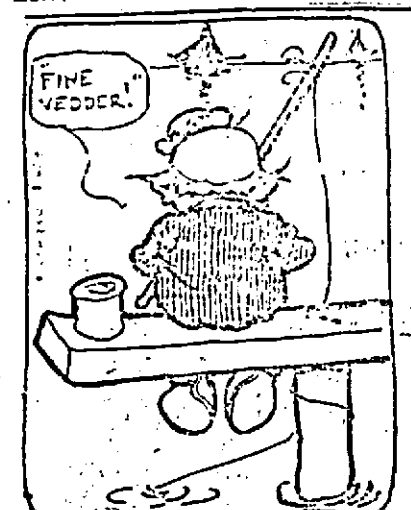

The physicians say that it will be days before the girl is no longer haunted by the eyes of the hypnotist.

THE GOD WE WORSHIP.

Two men were standing by the judges' stand at a race track, watching a horse, that was coming down the back stretch at a lively pace. As the driver turned the last quarter it was evident that one of the spectators possessed more than a passing interest in the horse that was being exercised for the next day's race.

With watch in hand he said to his companion, "Now John see her come. That's a 2:04 gait without a skip, and the little bay is as sure to win, as he is to enter the race." While he was talking the horse went under the wire at 2:06, and as the driver turned and jogged along back the two men went down on the track.

The owner of the little steed patted him on the neck, and said in tones that the intelligent animal understood, "That was well done old fellow, keep it up tomorrow and we'll win against the field," and then the driver passed on to the stables. The two men sauntered down the track talking about horses and race events of the season. John said, "You seem to think a good deal of that little horse Tom; What's his history, and why are you so attached to him?"

Tom stopped, and taking out a pocket diary said, "This little book contains all the history, not only of the horse, but of my life connected with him."

"Six years ago my father gave him to me when he was a colt four months old. We spent four years together on the old farm and in caring for him and training him I discovered that he had speed that only needed developing to make him a winner."

For the past two years we have been constant companions, traveling together all over the country, and he has never disappointed me. Think a good deal of him? Well I should say I do. I just about worship that horse, and I have never been ashamed to own it."

The statement may seem a little startling, and yet it is true, that every man and woman has an idol, in which is centered all the affection which the heart has developed.

It is as natural to worship something as it is to breathe, and not only every race, but every individual bows at some shrine, and pays homage at some altar.

The God of pleasure enlists a vast army of devotees, whose ambition is exhausted and satisfied in a constant round of pleasure seeking. Talk to this class of people about the serious problems of life and you fall to interest them because their sympathies have never been aroused, and life is given over to gaiety.

The God of passion and appetite command the homage of a still larger class and every day men and women are selling their birthright for indulgence that leads to ruin and premature decay. Four hundred women have just been turned loose from the tenderloin district in Chicago, victims of the cocaine habit, and physical and moral wrecks.

The man who has the appetite for drink thoroughly developed, will sell his soul to gratify it, to say nothing about robbing his home and selling everything else in sight.

There are thousands of workmen who never have a dollar in their pockets, 24 hours after pay day. Their families live in hovels and suffer every privation because their protector worships at the shrine of self-indulgence, regardless of consequences.

This class of men are usually found in the front ranks of the strikers' column. They are the loudest talkers in the procession, attempting to make themselves and others believe that things are not equitably distributed, and that life to them, has been destitute of opportunity.

Some mothers worship their children. This is frequently the case where there is but one child in the family. The little cherub is regarded as the embodiment of all that is bewitching. No other child is like it, and the mother, who is blessed with half a dozen darlings, is not expected to appreciate the great love and devotion that is lavished upon the one child in his lonely misfortune.

When death enters this class of homes and takes away the idol, nothing remains but bitterness and complaint. Other homes may be bereaved, but the one child has gone, and the idol is shattered. This kind of idolatry, while natural, is selfish. Sorrow is the common lot of humanity and every heart knows its own bitterness.

The God of money is overestimated. While the desire to make money is common, comparatively few people develop a miserly love for it. One of the most pitiable sights is an old man, who after years of struggle and accumulation, sits in the shadow, clinging to his gains with death like grip as though it were impossible to take with him to the life beyond the savings of a life time. Better by far to leave a monument to bless humanity.

Some people worship a hobby. It possesses their life, and they cling to it with such tenacity that every man who does not agree with them is regarded as an infidel or enemy. These people usually possess good moral character but nature failed to endow them liberally, and their thinking is largely confined to ruts and narrow channels.

This is a world of facts and not of theories, and these facts are so stubborn that the average mortal is fully occupied in giving them attention.

There is no scanning the dizzy heights except by patient climbing. The world grows better by slow degrees and not by leaps and bounds. Humanity is elevated by mixing, and not by a wave of the hand from the clouds.

The drink habit will disappear, and the social evil wiped out, when men and women discover that the greatest kingdom to be conquered is the kingdom of self.

This nation is called a Christian nation because it was founded in the broad principles of Christianity and is governed by these principles, but its subjects, as individuals are less loyal to the God of nations than the disciples of Mohamed of Confucius, or the masses who worship at the shrine of Buddha.

The Turk regards it a great honor to die in defense of his national religion, and nothing is so sacred to the Chinaman or Hindoo as the Deity to which he pays homage.

The heart of humanity, everywhere is a unit so far as worship is concerned. This instinct is a Divine endowment, and represents the kingdom of God that is within us.

The object of adoration, depends very largely on environment and education. In heathen lands it centers on idols, and in Christian lands it is supposed to center on God the Creator and Ruler of the Universe, but where the right of choice rests entirely with the individual, as it does in this land, it is not at all surprising that many Gods command attention and adoration.

The world will grow better as the great heart of Christian humanity breaks away from its idols and pays homage as the heart of one man to the true and living God. When that day comes there will be less sorrow, and more gladness and no legislation will be necessary to enforce the code of moral laws which contribute so largely to the welfare of humanity. "So mote it be."

It may be a violation of the political code of ethics, but the junior senator from Ohio is not a stickler for this class of nonsensical codes, and when he took the stump in his own behalf there was something doing all along the line. Wisconsin senators are too thin skinned for any use. They are perfectly willing to enjoy the chestnuts after they are captured, but too modest to be in at the killing.

The Wisconsin delegation is safely housed in Washington for the winter. The northern climate is a little rugged for delicate constitutions and the party can shift for itself until the robin's nest again. It is beneath the dignity of a Badger representative to mix up with state affairs. He is an official of the nation struggling under grave responsibilities.

Ex-Congressman Cook would undoubtedly make a good governor, but the vote that lands him in the executive chair will land La Follette in the senate. This may be a short cut to harmony, but it is a broad side to Quarles and his colleague.

Senator Whitehead will succeed himself in the state senate if he so desires. He has a host of friends in the district who endorse his policy and have confidence in his ability. The district could not find a better representative.

Recognition by the United States means something for the little republic of Panama. Her troublesome neighbors may find it advisable to keep at a respectable distance.

With common steel stock at 7 cents and preferred at 54 cents it begins to look as though Rockefeller had the whip hand and is using it with telling effect upon Morgan and his associates.

The governor aspires to the senate. In 1904 and the presidency in 1908. "God's patient poor" with a liberal sprinkling of "fair minded democrats" comprise a large constituency.

SAMUEL CLEMONS PASSES AWAY

Death Occurred At Two O'clock This Afternoon After An Illness Of Nearly A Year.

After a long illness extending over nearly a year, Samuel B. Clemons passed peacefully away at his home, 107 Cornelia street, shortly after two o'clock this afternoon. Though he had been critically ill for the past two weeks, the news of his death came as a shock even to his most immediate friends.

The deceased was born in Gault, Ontario, on January 4, 1830. He came to Janesville in 1850 and has made his home here since that time. He was a cabinet-maker by trade and has been identified with the manufacture of furniture since his residence here. Some years prior to the War of the Rebellion he became identified in business with R. Brand and William Sillito under the firm name of R. Brand & Co.

He was a natural musician and early evinced an interest in all such work in this city. He aided in forming the Bower City band and for many years was identified with orchestral work. In August, 1861, Mr. Clemons organized the Thirteenth Wisconsin Regimental band and served as its leader in the Civil war until the band was mustered out in 1862.

Mr. Clemons was married on September 14, 1857, to Miss Lucinda Ruggles of this city. Mrs. Clemons and three children survive him. The children are Frederick L., Cora C. and Ernest E. Clemons, all of this city. The many friends of the deceased will deeply sympathize with the family in their bereavement. The funeral services will be held from the residence at two o'clock Sunday afternoon, Rev. Denison officiating.

One Good Reason...

why you should have a sign hung over the door of your place of business or pointed on the window, is simply because it tells WHO you are and WHAT you've got to sell. It helps to sell your goods and anything that will do this appeals to you, of course. Don't stop at signs over your door or on your windows however. Let "HALLEY" show you samples of some of his New Ideas in Sign Painting for Fences, Barns, Etc; When the farmer comes to town the Signs he reads coming in often suggest to him WHERE to make his purchases. "HALLEY'S" Signs are business getters. Send him a postal and he'll bring his samples to your place of business. EVERYTHING IN UP-TO-DATE SIGNS. Chas. W. Hall, 31 South Main Street.

NEW SCALE GIVES 50,000 WORK

Glassworkers Enable Manufacturers to Shut Out Foreign Product.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 7.—As a result of the general conference of window glass interests in Philadelphia 10,000 skilled glass workers who have been idle for over six months will be back at work soon. Before Dec. 1 140,000 workmen dependent upon them will have employment. The glass workers will receive 2½ per cent increase in wages, but in the new scale is a concession made by the workers which will enable the manufacturers to shut out 800,000 or 900,000 boxes of foreign window glass imported annually from Belgium and France.

Young Woman Drops Dead. Wabash, Ind., Nov. 7.—Blanche Kaiser, a young lady of this city, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglass Kaiser, dropped dead while sewing at her home. It is presumed that she was stricken with heart disease, though it was not known that she suffered from any disease. She was 18 years old.

WILL HAVE MORE LIGHT AND ROOM

Post Office Employees Look Forward To Moving Time. Are Much Crowded.

Employees at the Post office are looking forward with eagerness to the time when Uncle Sam's property will be moved into the new building. Of late the force has been much cramped in the dingy old quarters and the new bright and airy apartments in the handsome structure on Franklin street will be a vast improvement. The chief trouble with the old rooms is the lack of light. There is little direct sunlight that finds its way behind the tall rows of letter boxes and the dim gas jets do not give a light conducive to much cheerfulness or a rested condition of the eyes. The new rooms are fitted abundantly with electric light as well as gas and the large windows admit plenty of "Old Sol's" rays. Being a post office employee is sometimes a thankless task and the better the surroundings, the easier the work. The public at large, according to one who has had much experience in the business, seem to believe that they can find fault with those who represent the United States government sooner than others and the man who curtly demands a letter addressed to John Smith, at the delivery window, little realizes what a formidable task it is to keep track of everybody's mail.

MARKET TALK ON CHICAGO CHANGE

Reports At The Closing Of The Great Windy City Markets.

Wheat opened about unchanged from previous close. Fairly good offerings around the opening in the Dec. and no support caused a decline of 1/4 cent, the May option to sag 1/4 in sympathy with Dec. The market had a little recovery from low point holding firm throughout the session with a small loss of 1/8 cent on the Dec. and 1/4 on the May. Primary receipts 1,30,337 against 1,614, 359 a year ago. Northwest cars 1579 against 1176 last year. Wheat looks to us in a very strong position at present and we advise a purchase on all weak spots.

Corn
Corn opened firm at last night's close in sympathy with wheat. There was good selling around the opening by elevator people and local professionals. At the decline the market recovered some of its loss by shorts covering. Trade very quiet. Closing firm with a little loss from previous close. Primary receipts 505, 145 against 344,100 last year. We still lean to the bull side of corn and recommend its purchase on all little set backs.

Oats
Oats opened steady. Offerings were quite heavy around the opening and the market declined 1/4 cent. Trader very light. Not much support, the market closed heavy.

Provisions
Provision market opened a little irregular. Pork easier and lard a little higher and ribs unchanged. Trade small. Offerings light. Hogs strong.
